Will they want to
keep coming back
if church is too
much like school?

Christian leaders and Sunday School workers can learn how to make the Gospel come alive, and can make Sundays the most anticipated day of the week by recognizing and appreciating each child's unique design. The last thing most energetic, curious and creative children want on Sunday is just another day of school—workbooks, stern teachers, or lots of quiet time.

You can learn to design strategies for motivating all ages and every kind of learner in a safe and structured environment without sacrificing discipline or creativity. Even the most reluctant learners or those with the strongest wills can be drawn to their Designer and Creator when you help them discover and use their learning strengths.

Let's make church their favorite place to learn!

Recommendations from enthusiastic clients:

"I am still remembering the huge delight of every person in the room! The three presentations seemed like just a few minutes to those of us who soak up every word you say, learning while we laugh! Thank you for being who you are...a very unique individual whom God has gifted with immense talent and intellect.

"You were a smashing success at our Salado Conference last week. Both of your presentations were outstanding and timely and our ministers appreciated all you had to say."

—Nelda P. Williams

Baptist General Convention of Texas

Cynthia is terrific, very well received by parents and faculty.

—Lynn Rosenbach

Faith Lutheran School, Las Vegas, NV

"You are not only a masterful speaker with a quiet winsome way, Cynthia, but your message is one that parents and teachers all over the world long to hear."

—Sandy Smith

Bailey Smith Ministries, Atlanta, GA

"Thank you for your dynamic ministry on the Intermountain District. The Lord used you in a powerful way. What a blessing to see our people respond as they did—Only eternity will reveal the total impact of your ministry"

—Rev. Ron Kratzer

Intermountain District Church of the Nazarene—Nampa, ID

"The attendees of our Women in Policing Seminar were captivated by the fact that Cynthia Tobias really understands policing, different learning styles, and the strong personalities that it takes to work in such a career. I have never seen such an attentive audience. Almost a year later people are still taking about the seminar and how we learned a lot about ourselves that day."

—Terri MacMillan, Retired Sergeant
Seattle Police Department

"Thank you so much for your participation in Focus on the Family's first-ever Teachers in Focus Conference. The attendees were overwhelming in their positive comments. Several wrote that they planned to make specific changes in their classrooms to try to recognize the strengths of all their students. The presentations were a total success—all that we had wanted them to be!"

"The reality of Learning Styles is so obvious that it is a shame we in the church have overlooked it for so long. From a pastor's perspective, we are always looking for ways to present the Gospel so that people not only hear the love of God but respond to it as well. The more I learn about learning styles, the better I become at representing my Lord!"

—Rev. Wes Sullivan

Church of the Nazarene, Gig Harbor, WA

"There are no words that can express my gratitude for what you were able to accomplish with my Board of Directors. ...Your energy and enthusiasm were evident, and the tools you gave to us helped us accomplish more than I could have hoped for."

It amazes me how well she knows teenagers and exactly how we think and act and feel. She made wonderful suggestions that make sense and will work as long as parents stay calm and not point their fingers and make us do it. Once again Cynthia is an amazing speaker who has certainly done her research and knows what she is talking about. Thank you very much and I plan to share these suggestions with my mom—hopefully it will improve our relationship.
